C. Passport and Consular Matters

1. Passport Services

1.1 A Talk Programme on "The Art of Negotiation: Approaches and Practices"

The department organized a talk programme on "The Art of Negotiation: Approaches and Practices" on 12 January at the presence of Foreign Secretary Mr. Shanker Das Bairagi as a chief guest.

Mr. Bhuwan Ojha, Section Officer, presented a paper highlighting the essence of negotiation skills in individual, societal, state and global level. He shed a light on school of thought, approaches, levels of analysis, theories, and steps and recent research agenda of negotiation. Mr. Kunjan Shah, Section Officer, dealt with the role of good faith in international negotiation. Mr. Madhu Raman Acharya, Former Foreign Secretary and the special guest of the programme, presented negotiation as an important tool for country like Nepal. Quoting John F. Kennedy, he opined that diplomats from weak states should negotiate "out of fear" and never "fear to negotiate". Mr. Bairagi directed the attendants to be creative, knowledgeable, persuasive and hard working. He stressed on the need for practical session on the same topic. Mr. Ram Kaji Khadka, Director General at the Department, extended 'a vote of thanks' to the guests and put forward the notion that negotiation is an integral part of diplomacy and communication skills.

1.2 Completion of Internal Audit of the Department as per the Requirement of ISO 9001:2015

Internal audit of the Department was performed on 20 to 22 December. As per the mandatory requirement of the certifying body for ISO 9001:2015 certification, internally trained auditors of the Department carried out internal audit of each section to verify the functional alignment with the International Standards. Consistent delivery of products and services, customers' satisfaction, evaluation of statutory and regulatory requirements and risk assessment in service delivery were few of many objectives of internal audit which is carried out twice a year.

Internal Auditor's report helps to analyze the discrepancies between performance and the standards; and enables the department to improvise its action to meet the requirement of ISO 9001:2015.
