

नेपाली राजदूतावास, बेइजिङ
尼泊尔驻华大使馆, 北京
EMBASSY OF NEPAL, BEIJING

PRESS RELEASE

The 2568th Buddha Jayanti was celebrated at the Embassy of Nepal in Beijing this morning. The program was attended by more than 120 participants including Ambassadors, diplomats, Chinese nationals from various organizations, members of the Nepali community living in China as well as representatives from media.

Welcoming the guests, Ambassador H.E. Bishnu Pukar Shrestha extended his greetings on the auspicious occasion and emphasized that Buddha's eternal teachings will inspire whole of the humanity to lead a noble, compassionate, moral and meaningful life; and in combating global challenges faced by the world today. He further highlighted that the longstanding ties between the two countries which is rooted in the principles of Panchasheel symbolizes Buddhist spirituality.

During the event, Most Venerable Monk Chang Zang, Vice President of the Buddhist Association of China and Abbot of Beijing Lingguang Temple shed light on the close bond between the peoples of Nepal and China. He expressed hope for continued cooperation in fostering peace and prosperity for both nations and the global community.

Prayers were offered to Lord Buddha for universal peace and harmony by the Buddhist Monks. The program featured singing bowls performance and meditation. Lord Buddha's paintings were also displayed on the occasion.

Embassy of Nepal
Beijing
23 May 2024

