

Government of Nepal
MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS
Kathmandu, Nepal

Press Release

The Rt. Hon'ble Mr. Sher Bahadur Deuba, Prime Minister of Nepal and President of Nepali Congress Party has sent a congratulatory message to His Excellency Mr. Xi Jinping, President of the People's Republic of China and General Secretary of the Communist Party of China today on the successful holding of the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, and his re-election as the General Secretary of the Party. In his message, the Rt. Hon'ble Prime Minister said the re-election of H.E. Mr. Xi is an indication of the great confidence that the Chinese people and the Communist Party of China have placed in his dynamic leadership.

Noting unprecedented strides made by China in socio-economic and technological development and in improving the quality of life of the Chinese people, Prime Minister Deuba has applauded H.E. Mr. Xi's vision of 'global community of common destiny for all humankind' and greater cooperation among nations for economic prosperity.

Rt. Hon'ble Mr. Deuba also expressed his confidence that Nepal-China bilateral relations would continue to grow in multiple dimensions and reach a new level in the days to come.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Kathmandu, Nepal
October 25, 2017

